CASHIER DRINKS POISON IN BANK; SEARCH BOOKS

Medical Examiner of Southington Reports That Curtis Died By Own Hand.

Hartford, Jan. 7.—Dr. W. O. Steadman, of Southington, medical examiner, has filed his report with Coroner J. G. Calhoun, on death of Louis E. Curtis, Southington National Bank cashier. It says he took a dose of concentrated ammonia. The report ends with "probably suicide."

The latest information is that if there is any shortage in the accounts of the deceased cashier it is probably small. The exact status of the accounts, say the examiners, cannot be determined until the whereabouts of certain securities is discovered.

The medical examiner's report "He took what seemed to be concentrated ammonia and died in a very short time. Whether it was taken with suicidal intent or not I could not learn. The time elapsed between the taking of the dose and death was not over 20 minutes. He made no complaint or statement to his wife, who was present until a few minutes after taking the dose, when she asked him what was the matter and he said, 'I am dying.'"

"I have the remains of the liquid from which he took the dose. It would require an expert chemical analysis to determine. Will send you a sample if you wish. Died on bed in own home."

"Probably suicide."

At the time Mr. Curtis was taken ill, Federal Bank examiners were in the bank on their regular periodic call to examine the books and securities. This examination was not completed yesterday and may not be today. It was stated at the banks. A further statement was authorized that the examination so far as it had progressed had shown everything to be "absolutely correct, even to a penny."

NEW YORK CREDITORS FORCE MARKETMEN INTO BANKRUPTCY

Affairs of the Stauder-Gleason Co., proprietors of a meat market, were forced into the bankruptcy court here today by three New York creditors. They are Austin Nichols & Co., R. U. Williams, and Sulzberger & Sons Co. The total claims are $1,154.82.

The marketmen conducted a meat department in the store of the Dorsen Dry Goods Co., 1144 Main street.

The schedules filed with Referee Banks today by the Stauder, Gleason Co. show wages due $238.00, preferred claims of $152.22 and unsecured claims of $6,222.11. The assets are $14.57 cash on hand, $2,200 stock in trade, fixtures $3,937, and deposits of $2,277.02 cash in banks subject to attachments by the Dorsen Dry Goods Co., under whose roof the business was formerly conducted. The first meeting of creditors has been set for January 17.

NERVY THIEF STEALS TOURING CAR AND GOES TO SEE "LAW OF LAND"

The nerviest thief Bridgeport has had in a long time, stole the automobile of Patrick McGee, coal merchant of 3248 Main street, last night. Mr. McGee's car is one of the costliest manufactured. The thief wanted it only for a little while. He drove to the Lyric theatre and went into the "The Law of the Land."

He took it from the curb in front of the McGee residence. Edward McGee, son of the owner, saw the theft and gave chase. He found the machine at the theatre.

COLEMAN IS HEAD OF ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY

John Coleman was elected president of St. Joseph's T. B. and L. association at the annual election of officers held last night at the club rooms, Barnum avenue. Other officers elected were Francis P. Donigan, vice president; Frank Farrell, treasurer; Christopher Coleman, financial secretary; John Sherrin, corresponding secretary; John Ryan, recording secretary; Edward Lavery, chairman of the board of trustees; John Hughes, second trustee and Joseph Miller, third trustee. Dr. James L. Sullivan was elected examining physician.

Strikers at the Summit Silk Mill at Summit, N. J., returned to work.

CHAIN TREADS are the ultimate choice of motorist who "take a chance" with any make of tire.

CHAIN TREADS end experiments. The longer you drive without them, the greater will be your appreciation of them—and your regret at not having made them your FIRST tires.

UNITED STATES "Chain Tread" TIRES

are real rubber chain treads built on powerful, modern tires. They reduce risk of punctures—and skidding. And the mileage they give makes them true ECONOMY tires.
